Lumberjacks Are Needed

Between 25 and 30 BYU lumberjacks are needed to remove and trim trees around Provo Seventh Day Adventist School, on Y Day. They need to know how to run a chainsaw or wield an ax, according to J. Elliot Cameron, Dean of Students.

Transportation and further information is available from Claudia Wright, 374-5568.

Pre-Y Day Fun, May Day Dance

The Cougarettes will be displaying their talents one more time this year as they present dance around the May Pole at 11 a.m. Tuesday on the quad, according to Carol Morgan, chairman.

THE MAYDAY celebration is a custom of many countries throughout the world. In some countries this becomes a time for courting and serenading and celebrating the arrival of spring (and it is surely here!).

Because the Puritans frowned on May Day, it is not celebrated with the same enthusiasm in the U.S. as it is in Britain and some of the other European countries.

'Stormy Weather'

For all pessimistic students who are wondering what will happen to "Y Day" if it rains, it has been announced by Karen Johnson, chairman that the bells will be playing "Stormy Weather" on Wednesday morning if the weather forecast is rain.

If this terrible catastrophe does happen then all students are to attend classes as usual and Y Day will be postponed until the following Wednesday.

Surprises Start Tuesday To Introduce Y Day Fun

by Kathy Cheney
Y Day Editor

Y Day activities swing into action a day early with "surprises" planned for the students on Tuesday.

The surprises may pop up anywhere including:

Congrats: a "lucky" napkin makes you eligible to receive a prize from a faculty member if you follow directions on the napkin.

Vending machines may produce a little card, legal tender for a gift from a down-town business. Classroom seats, if they have colored slips on them, will also contain a place to go for a prize.

AWS Council: Don't say "Hi!"—say "Surprise in Disguise" to these AWS girls in their dark blue uniforms. The 10th person gets a prize.

Free brownies will reward the faithful attenders in eight classes sometime during the day.

Mat Dance from 4:30 to 6 p.m. will end Pre-Y Day activities with the Vectors.

Only 300 Tickets Left For Prom

Only 300 tickets remain to the Junior Prom and 1,200 tickets for the Concert, according to Dave Wright, tickets chairman.

THE TICKETS will remain on sale south of the Clark Library from 8:50 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. until sold out.

Mr. Wright commented that dark suits would be appropriate dress for both Prom and Concert for the men.

Dr. S. Dean Wanless . . . to speak at lecture series.

Lecture Series To Feature Philco Leader

Dr. S. Dean Wanless, vice president of the Philco Corporation will speak at the Executive Lecture Series Monday at 5 p.m. in 184 Knight Bldg., according to Harold Milner, chairman of the series.

THE PHILADELPHIA executive will speak on "The Product Development Cycle". He has devoted his lifetime to the fields of administration and sciences.

Dr. Wanless is a graduate of the California Institute of Technology and received his Ph.D. degree in physics and mathematics. He taught undergraduate physics at his alma mater and graduate physics at the University of California at Los Angeles.

A NATIVE of Monroe, Utah, Dr. Wanless was president and a member of the board of directors for the Packard-Bell Computer Corporation and general operations manager of space systems operation of the aeronautics division of the Ford Motor Company.

Earl J. Glade Honored At Banquet

Earl J. Glade, made an honorary member of Kappa Tau Alpha Friday at the Communications Award Banquet, was introduced as the man who founded KSL and, through a mix-up, found the World Series being piped into the tabernacle.

MR. GLADE told his audience, "I'm glad most of you are too young to remember the depression. Pessimists thought that the United States had come to the end of its development but BYU grew from 3,500 to 15,000 and the population of the United States grew from 140 to 190 million."

He predicted, "There are some great days ahead. Take advantage of them; they are going to get greater and greater."

Awards given were four-year honors to Joel Justesen, Holly Thostad and Helle Gonzales of the Banyan; three-year awards to Joan Higbee of the Banyan and Bob Mitchell and Mary Bell of the Universe; two-year service citations to Kaye Terry of the Banyan and Meryl Lynn Forsberg, Lavina Fielding and Bud Tolman of the Universe.

Receiving one-year pins were Bud Bracken, Kay Ferrell, Linda Giles, Rosemary Henley, Elizabeth Quinn, Patricia Phippen, Doug Elsom, Dallas Sprouse, Andrea Lee and Pat Marotto of the Banyan.

'Master Teacher' Praised At Party

Dr. P. A. Christiansen was honored by friends, colleagues and past students as a "master teacher" in a reception last week.

Dr. Edwin R. Kimball, of the Physical Education program called him "the most Christian gentleman I have ever known."

DR. OBERT C. Tanner, Professor of Philosophy at the University of Utah, stated, "I think Dr. Christiansen would be at home in any university anywhere. This is the highest compliment I can pay."

Cat Gridders Vanquish Alumni Eleven On Snow-Smothered Provo Gridiron

by Stan Hodge
Sports Editor

Coach Tom Hudspeth and the U football varsity gave local fans a good sampling of the team they intend to field next fall as they soundly whacked the alumni eleven 18-0 in the annual alumni- varsity game Saturday.

BECAUSE THE Cougars are at present homeless with the old stadium torn up for new buildings, and the new stadium scheduled for completion the game was played on the Provo High field. The game was the only weekend activity (after Friday's diamond play) which survived the snow of winter which dumped inches of snow on Utah. As it was the game was played between 4-foot banks of snow and mostly in a blinding snowstorm. Coach Hudspeth used a winged formation to lead the Cats to a revenge for last year's 19-14 loss to the alumni. Many of the stars who were principally responsible for this year's win were names which were completely unknown to Cougar fans . . . names like Henry Nawahine, Austin McNaughton, Steve Ogden and John Ogden. But known or not, they proved, along with quarterbacks Virgil Carter and Bob Marshall, that they'll be hard to stop in next fall's Western Athletic Conference race.

AND THE DEFENSE was good too. The Alumni have been noted for fine runners including former all-American Eldon Fortie. The Cougars made it a rough go and the alums were forced to the air . . . and not by any stretch of the imagination was it any weather for passing.

The Cougars scored the first time they got their hands on the ball. Phil Brady returned the first alumni punt 25 yards to the varsity 43. Alan Robinson picked up a couple of yards and McNaughton made five. Then Carter threatened the needle, hitting Nawahine with a 30- yard pass. McNaughton made another good sized gain before Carter rolled into the end zone from 10 yards out with enough points to end the game right there.

THE SECOND touchdown came in the second period after Steve Ogden returned a punt to the alumni 27. Two plays later Ogden crossed the endline with six more points.

The third and final score for the varsity came in the last period on a pitch-out option around right end from about 10 yards out by Bob Marshall. Marshall first faked the fullback dive into the line and then moved down the right side finally faking a pitch out to the halfback and keeping the ball as he rolled into the end zone.

Sluggers Annihilate Poke Nine

BYU jumped back into the baseball picture Friday defeating the University of Wyoming twice, 14-8 and 3-1, before the Cougars came to cancel out the third game of the series Saturday.

THE SWEEP OF the doubleheader placed the Cougars back in the running for the Western Athletic Conference Northern Division title. The University of Utah currently leads the division with a 3-1 conference record. U is second at 3-3, and the Cougars who were preseason favorites bring up the rear with a 0-2 mark.

The third game between Wyoming and BYU scheduled to start Saturday morning was postponed indefinitely, but with the two teams slated for a three-game series in Laramie next Friday and Saturday it is possible that the game may be made at that time.

OTHER EVENTS which were either postponed or cancelled Saturday included a three-way track meet between BYU, New Mexico and Utah, and the BYU half invitational which the Cougars were leading after Friday's first day. The track meet may be held today if New Mexico fails to stay over and the weather clears.

In the first game between the Cougar clan ran up a marathon 12 lead by the end of the fourth inning on four doubles and three singles. The Wyoming sluggers made five miscues during the game.

IN THE FIRST inning of that game Gary Herr belted one big free run homer and later on in the fifth, Jim Hemming made the only other homer when he soloed making the score 14-5.

For the night cap, Doug Ward held the mound all the way. He gave up only one run to the Pokes in the seventh and last inning of play.
